Excise Commissioner's letter No 3383/185 dated 14th December 1892

Order thereon: —

~~The facts gathered from the enclosures received with the communication read above are the following.~~

At the time of the sale of the Toddy farms in the Holalkere Taluk held by the Special Officer in February 1892, one Tekalvatte Gangiah tendered Rs 40 for Hagalkere and Korehalli Shops in the Hosdurga Sub-Taluk, But the Special Officer mistook the tender to be only for Hagalkere Shop and sold the other shop separately for Rs 72 - As the tenderer for the first shop alone was not present at the time of sale, the Special Officer directed the Hosdrug Dy Amil to send for the man and obtain the prescribed muchalika from the tenderer. The tenderer protested that his tender was for both the shops above alluded to and not for one shop and refused to take up the shop which ~~The shop~~ was resold and fetched only Rs 27-0-0 ~~But in the sale list received from the Excise Asst Commr. the sum of Rs 120 has been entered against the shop~~.

The Dy Commr is of opinion that the tenderer cannot be held responsible for the loss of Rs 98-13-0 inclusive of Local Cess caused to Govt by the resale of the farm. The Excise Commr. recommends that the sum of Rs 98-13-0 may be written off the accounts.

2. Under the circumstances, stated ~~in para 1 above~~, sanction is accorded to the sum of Rs 98-13-0 being written off the accounts.

3. The Excise Commr. will be requested to report ~~for the information~~ of Govt. the result of the steps ~~being~~ taken for the recovery of the loss of Rs 28-11-0 caused to Govt. by the resale of the Mattodu Toddy shop referred to in para 3 of the communication read above.
